In addition to this, the centre has published two handbooks for teaching Sanskrit one at upper primary level and other at secondary level. The centre has successfully organized 48 programmes and 03 Faculty Induction Programmes (FIP) till now.

Backdrop

As we all know Research is a creative & systematic work undertaken to add new knowledge to the existing corpus of knowledge and advance solutions to the problems by application of the scientific method. It is the most important way for creating knowledge, progress, and enabling an individual to relate effectively to his environment, to accomplish his purposes & to resolve his conflicts. The process of research involves various activities such as identification of the research problems, framing Research Questions & Objectives, formulation of hypothesis, Research Design, choosing sample by appropriate sampling method, data collection & analysis, formulating conclusion & report writing. All these research activities need skills and competencies for planning and carrying them in an effective manner & meaningful way. In addition to this, skill of using digital tools & software also become significant for doing these activities quickly and accurately. In this backdrop, one-week Faculty Development Programme (FDP) has been organized with an intent to give insight into enhancing the research-based skills & competencies ranging from establishing a problem to result finding and report writing.

Objectives

The objectives of this programme are:
