About The Programme:

Evaluation is an integral concept in all educational processes. It invariably plays a significant role in shaping and designing teaching learning procedures at all levels of education ranging from pre primary to tertiary levels. Needless to stress that evaluation is an inextricably related to planning, organising, monitoring and controlling the various strategies relevant to enhance the quality of instructional processes. In this frame of reference all teachers and teacher educators irrespective of their subject and level of education are required to develop appropriate insight towards using and applying various formats and strategies of evaluation in assuring an effective pedagogy. This can be rendered possible by augmenting skills and competencies connected with diverse evaluation processes. These can be acquired and promoted at three levels i.e. level of awareness, adaptation and application in as much as honing and shaping their skills in all these areas with adequate care and acumen. The present 21 days training programme has been designed with a view to familiarise the language teachers with various formats and strategies of evaluation being used in emerging educational scenario of constructivist paradigm. It is intended that the various sessions slated during the training programme will enrich and enhance the competencies of participants for designing, developing and ensuring effective formats of evaluation strategies.
