Endowment and Corpus Policy of Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri National Sanskrit University, New Delhi

Endowments are a vital resource dedicated to a University's future. They provide the flow of corpus essential to promote education, foster research, and enhance academic programs at the university in perpetuity. Endowments at Shri Lal Bahadur Shastri National Sanskrit University, New Delhi are funds established by a Donor whereby only the interest each year is used for the specified purpose of the fund. The principal amount remains intact and is invested for long-term growth.

Corpus is created for the long term stability of the University. SLBSNS University also accepts Corpus Donations for its sustainable growth and reserves at the time of exigency.

Objective

The goal of the endowment and corpus is to provide long-term capital as well as stable annual income to support the growth of SLBSNS University's academia, research projects, and student scholarships etc.

Endowed Scholarship Fund

In an effort to recognize outstanding students, the endowed scholarship fund is created for providing financial assistance to SLBSNSU students. This fund is set up to help deserving students attain their educational goals through student scholarships. The University seeks unrestricted contributions from its alumni, well-wishers and faculty, institutions and foundations to support the progress of its students.

Endowed and Corpus funds are held and managed by the University.

Types of Donors:

- Corporate Donors
- Individual Donors

Corporate Donors
